1. It is believed that Count Carlo Sforza will bring Filippo Caracciolo and Ricotti into the Ministry of Foreign Affairs with him.
2. Renato Prunas who was scheduled to leave for Ankara on 3 February is now reported to have postponed his departure until 12 February in the hope that he will find a more favorable opening elsewhere following the solution of the government crisis.
3. Ivan Matteo Lombardo is said to be very pessimistic regarding his possible designation as Ambassador to the United States. In his opinion the split in the Socialist Party has deprived the appointment of reason because he no longer represents a significant group of Italian public opinion.
